

A Lawyer's Guide to Beauty Business Insurance

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 28, 2020

Hastings, Nebr. (Nebraska) - In the era of COVID-19, our community has witnessed an uptick of questions regarding liability for disease, insurance coverage, and legalities of waivers. On Wednesday, April 29, 2020, The Sovereign Stylist will release an interview with Jennifer LeMaster, an Insurance Coverage Attorney and Name Partner of LeMaster & Ahmed PLLC, in Texas. After becoming a partner at an international firm, Mrs. LeMaster represented insurance companies, provided coverage options, and defended coverage disputes, which taught her the ends and outs of sound policy. Mrs. LeMaster has graciously brought that knowledge to The Sovereign Stylist in her interview and is offering free evaluations for Business Interruption Coverage for Commercial Policy, Property Policy, and/or Business Owners policy.

To use the business insurance evaluation, please submit your policy to jennifer@lalawtx.com, and the titled policyholder will be contacted with the assessment.

The video will be published on The Sovereign Stylist's YouTube channel and will be shared with the Facebook group for a viewing party. LeeAnn Miley will join Jennifer LeMaster for a viewing party to answer questions that are not addressed in the interview.

In light of so many unknowns within the beauty industry, The Sovereign Stylist is proud to be able to offer advice, hope, and education to those that desire it.

For press inquiries, please contact LeeAnn Miley at info@thesovereignstylist.org
